Option 1:

100 GW

Option 2:

120 GW

Option 3:

140 GW

Option 4:

160 GW

SolutionHeading: Full Solution

Text:

The Government of India has set a target of achieving 140 gigawatts (GW) of wind energy capacity by 2030. This goal is part of India's broader strategy to expand renewable energy and achieve net-zero emissions targets. Wind energy is a clean and sustainable source of power that helps reduce dependence on fossil fuels. Increasing wind energy capacity will contribute significantly to energy security, environmental protection, and climate change mitigation.
